

WEST BATON ROUGE PARISH COUNCIL

DISTRICT 2

Beginning at the intersection of the centerlines of LA Hwy. 1 and Ton-Ton Canal, then proceed southerly along the centerline of LA Hwy. 1 S to the centerline of W. St. Francis Street; then westerly to a drainage feature that is an extension of St. Francis Street and continue westerly to Merlin Pumping Station and the centerline of a drainage feature Ellwood Canal (known as LAT 10); then southerly to the centerline of a power transmission line; then southeasterly along the centerline of the power transmission line to the centerline of LA Hwy. 1 S; then southerly along LA Hwy. 1 S to the centerline of an unnamed roadway north of and parallel to Quarter Horse Lane; then northwesterly to the centerline of L-2 Canal, then onto to the centerline of Coulee Canal; then southwestwardly to the centerline of Bayou Bourbeaux; then southerly and southwestwardly to the intersection of the southern and western parish boundaries; then northwesterly to the centerline of Missouri-Pacific Railroad; then easterly to the centerline of the Intracoastal Canal; then northerly and northeasterly to the centerline of a power transmission line; then southeasterly to the centerline of Choctaw Basin Drainage Canal; then northeasterly to a drainage feature known as Ton-Ton Canal; then southeasterly to the centerline of LA Hwy. 1 S and the point of beginning.